

11. Permitted to access the registration process with bridging course requirement

Dear [Nom del candidat/a],

We are pleased to inform you that you have met all the requirements in order to be able to register. Check the calendar to know when you have to register.

After being on the waiting list, if you are assigned a place after your corresponding registration period has expired, you will be given a specific appointment and you will have five calendar days to complete your registration (as from the day after you receive the email with access to the online registration).

We would like to welcome you to our university and to thank you for choosing the URV to pursue your postgraduate studies. We would also like to provide you with some important information regarding the registration process.

Completion of registration process:

You must complete the registration process online.

If you detect any errors in your registration after you have completed it, you have a further five calendar days to rectify them.

Academic information:

Before you register, if you have any questions about the subjects, if you intend to study the master's degree on a part-time basis in two years or more, or if you have not attended the group orientation sessions (for those master's degrees that organise them), please email the master's degree coordinator, [Nom coordinador] at [e-mail coordinador].

On the basis of your previous qualifications, the Coordinator / Academic Committee has decided that you must study certain subjects as bridging courses. Bear in mind that you are required to register for them.

You can find out which subjects these are via the document manager.

Before you register, you can consult the timetables, course guides and the names of the teaching staff, and the minimum and maximum number of credits that you can register for.

Economic information:

Click on the links for information relating to prices, fees, exemptions and insurance coverage and payment methods.

Registration documentation:

If you think you are entitled to an exemption or discount but have not uploaded the corresponding document to the document manager, please contact us.

The URV may check and/or validate your personal information with other administrations or organisations (DNI/NIE, university qualification, large family status, level of disability). You can appeal against the URV checking your personal information with other administrations or organisations.

Administrative procedures:

Click here for all information on the different administrative procedures that you can request as a master's student, such as requesting recognition of professional experience, other types of credit recognition, etc.

URV email address and digital services:

After you have completed the registration process, the URV will generate an account for you so that you have access to an institutional email address and other digital services at the University. The account will be operative 24 hours after you register and you can access it through the URV's Intranet. Click here to find out how to access your account.

Once you have accessed the Intranet, click on "Correu electrònic" to access your URV email account. It is important that you check this account regularly because we will use it to send important information to you during your time at the URV.

URV Card:

After you have registered you can apply for a URV Card. Click here to learn about its benefits and how you can apply for one.

If you need any further information, please do not hesitate to contact us.

Regards,

[Secretariat of Faculty/School/Campus]
